Venerable Founder of Khem

This is an experimental web page for meditation, sponsored by Ordo Illuminati Aegyptorum, that congregates the Illuminated ones of the Mysteries School of Akhenaten, Grand Master of the Fourth Dimension.

AN IMMENSE and abysmal white and shining emptiness opens, pointing in the route of the Infinite. It is the Great Mystical Window that is open in the sidereal space to receive the cosmic traveler. In few seconds everything will be changed, in magnificent metamorphosis of the Great Initiation, the last step of the Stairs of the Time in this Plan of Understanding, the material world, for you All people living on the sidereal being Planet Earth... Memories of entire lives are shown to the Initiate as a very quick film and go being left to backwards, each time more left to back, while his some subtle bodies are moving away, leaving exempt the Master, the Master solely who he himself constructed and that, now, go to exist in the Eternity, before the indescribable Eternal Light emanated from the Great Central Sun. Planets and stars pass vibrating near to the new expanded body of the Adept that already he does not need a material individuality container to feel an autonomous worker. Without necessity of words or a dialect it speaks with the celestial bodies. The creature Initiated now became infinite and extremely calm, nothing, simply nothing can disturb its task of understanding and assimilation of the basic essences that go to his being infused by the Perpetual Light, with the sound of the Music of the Spheres, that leads the movement of the Plans and the Dimensions. This is the destination of the sincere seekers, that had chosen it as goal, better to be able to fulfill to the mission the one that if had imposed in the Perpetual Day of the Evolution. Understanding is the Law: Thinks, Creates, Harvests - and later it travels for the meeting with the Master, in the Mansion of the Eternal Light, much above of the Polarities. Then, a new mission is trusted to he, he, the Adept that promoted as much after and so long days for the worlds revealed in the solitude of the quiet and cold Cosmos: to return, diving of new in the dense substance, through a fantastic projection. The Adept is there, but he goes to live new lives, in the worlds of where one day he came, without however losing per one alone instant its true nature, finally reached. Finally? But will be this the final goal, the conclusion of everything? The Spira Legis (Spirals of the Law) continues in its perpetual and symbolic turn, rotation inside and outside the cosmic entity (and Law) the Time, producing infinite evolution of everything against silent and inexorable action of the Law of the Entropy. A perpetual project, that functions alone, for its own true volition and thoughts, of which everything and all participate. Is through this eternal cosmic web of mutant lights that the Adept travels - now in the total control of his navigation. As it was said, thus it will be done: "To sail is necessary, to live is not necessary".
